PROMOTION AND RETENTION OF STUDENTS

It is essential that each child experience both challenge and success from school activities. To this end, the district will make every effort to place each student in the most appropriate learning level for a successful educational experience.

District curriculum guides indicate goals for achievement by the "average" student at each grade level. It is recognized that not all students learn at the same rate.

does not take place at the same pace or time for all individuals. Certain students may achieve mastery in a shorter period, while others need additional time. Early identification and intervention, promotion and retention are methods of meeting the needs of such children.

The following guidelines shall govern student progression:

Students who fail two subjects shall have their cases considered on an individual basis through a case conference approach described above

Senior High School In general, promotion from one class to the next shall be contingent upon the passing of all required subjects and the accumulation of 4
